

newsletter

July 2015

Communication Corner

unhinderspeech.com*Improving lives – One word at time!*

Dear Reader,

Greetings. I hope all is well with you. It's great to present the first newsletter of Communication Corner at UnhinderedSpeech.com - Come talk with me.

In this the first issue – we would like to: introduce UnhinderedSpeech.com - Come talk with me ; share a little about communication and offer some fun activities which can help in developing speech and language abilities. Please subscribe so you can access more great information and engaging activities.

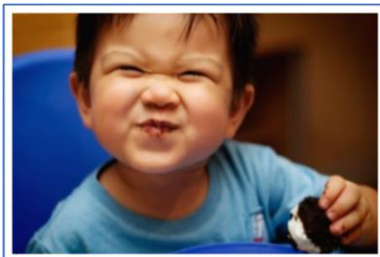

Sincerely,

John E. Peats

Social Skills

Did you know

At 24 months toddlers;

1. Can have a 250-300 word vocabulary
2. Communicate feelings and interests
3. Love playing alongside a friend
4. Engage in pretend play
5. Talk using short phrases

Learn more at UnhinderedSpeech.com

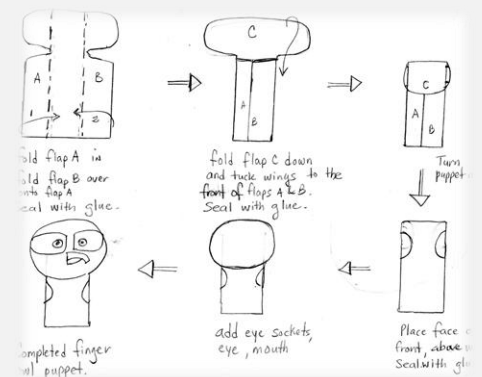

Sound puzzle of the week:
letter 'v'

www.unhinderedSpeech.com/puzzle/

FUN! FUN! FUN!!

Quirky Hippo finger puppet - Direction(s): Using colored foam sheet trace patterns below and cut out. Fold & glue foam cut out according to diagram Attach eyes and draw mouth and nose as shown below.

For directions click on the following link:

<http://www.unhinderedSpeech.com/project/directions/>